Settings rarely come like this: nestled in the heart of Clifton Village, the Avon Gorge Hotel offers a unique location for any trip to Bristol. This historic hotel offers unparalleled views of Brunel's Grade 1 listed Suspension Bridge, said to be "one of the world's greatest bridges".

Inspiring meetings

The Avon Gorge Hotel offers an inspiring venue for any meeting or conference. All of its meeting rooms offer natural light and are suited to all manner of business meetings, training courses and conferences. The hotel's historic nature and location set it apart from all other conference venues in Bristol.

Situated less than two miles from the city centre, the hotel is a peaceful retreat from the demands and pressure of daily business. Delegates and executives are able to focus on the job in hand.

The finishing touches are in the service and the detail. Professional but relaxed, the staff will always be in attendance to ensure you want for nothing. The hotel's location enables them to organise really inspiring outdoor activities.
